

From Deering's Legacy Stuff located in the interface between the 2nd and 3rd Millennium—including a little bit of overlap from each.

from Deering's PsychHology Engineering Handbook section on Graphical Representation of PsychHHological Functions

- * Number'ology is even a younger science than is teleömetrics and though up to this point-in-time I thought it more tic (tongue-in-cheek) than science I'm now having second thoughts about it ... number'ology is my attempt to answer the never ending critics of humans knowing things by demanding exactness to infinite number of decimal places ... for flavor of how to respond to such irrational demands see my answer to the (supposedly unanswerable) question: "How many angels can dance on the head of a pin?" in my unpublished LTE's inside Gary's Venns at gdeering.com

How many angels can dance on the head of a pin?